Daring Thief Takes Register From Cleaners

Detectives are seeking a daring thief, who walked into a cleaning establishment at 10010 So. Prairie Ave., Friday afternoon and took a small cash register containing about $200.

Authorities say clerks were going about their work at the Perfection Cleaners when the suspect came in and asked for his cleaning. Agnes Egnew and Pauline Ross, both clerks, stepped to the back of the shop to look for the clothes. When they returned the man and a small grey cash register both were gone.

Detectives say the theft occurred about 2 p.m., Friday. After the loss was discovered, the clerks and Raleigh W. Freeman, 34, owner of the shop, who was in the rear working, rushed outside to see if they could trace the suspect, but the culprit was out of sight by that time.

Detectives said they talked to a number of people in nearby stores and none reported seeing the man either enter or leave the cleaners.

The register reportedly contained about $200 in currency and $60 in change.

The victims described the thief as being about 19 or 20 years old, 140 pounds, with black hair.

Dog Rescued From Hole

Mr. and Mrs. David Fay, of 2011 W. 242nd St., firemen and humane society workers were quick to the rescue Saturday morning when a Great Dane dog fell into a huge hole on oil property land near 240th St. and Eastman Ave.

The dog, a female with fawn color and a black mask evidently had strayed and fallen into the hole, which was about eight-foot deep, the Fays said. They helped get the pooch out and said the dog was well and showed signs of being well-cared for.

The dog was taken to the Humane Society, where its owner may pick it up.

'Ma' Ramsey, Daughter Get Trial Delay

Loela Mae "Ma" Ramsey, 71, of 1011 W. 223rd St., and her daughter, Marguerite Reeves, 49, of 3625 W. 227th St., have been granted a delay in trial until March 22 in Long Beach Superior Court on charges that they performed two illegal operations here last September.

Trial was originally scheduled for today but Superior Court Judge Beach Vasey granted the delay because the attorney for the two women had another trial in progress and because Mrs. Reeves was reportedly recovering from a spinal operation.

"Ma" Ramsey has had five prior convictions on similar charges and her daughter was convicted with her on one of the charges previously.

Commission Moves Street

The Regional Planning Commission last week received an amendment proposing the removal of Westview Dr. between Hawthorne Ave. and Granvia Altamira in the Palos Verdes area.

The Commission approved two zone exception cases: one for the building of a gymnasium and sports facilities at the Chadwick School on Academy Rd. in Rolling Hills, and the other permitting the storage of farm equipment on the west side of Dolores St. south of E. 223rd St.

Petitioner in the second case was Giacomo Trani.

South Bay Jewry to Celebrate

The Gardens Valley Jewish Center will celebrate the Festival of Purim at its fourth annual Costume Ball this Saturday evening, Feb. 25, at 8 at the Center.

A Queen Esther contest for teen-age girls will be held and the winner will be awarded a gift certificate.

The Festival of Purim is also known as the Festival of Lots. It commemorates the triumph of Mordecai over Haman in ancient Persia and is a symbol of the triumph of justice over prejudice.

The next meeting of the GVCJ will be held Feb. 28 at 8:30 at the Center, 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., Gardena. Members and friends are invited to attend.

Hearing Set On Boarding Home Permit

Formal hearing on a petition of D. O. Guaderama, 21021 Medrona Ave., for a variance to permit operation of a boarding home for the aged has been set by the Planning Commission for March 7.

Prior to the hearing, a committee of the Commission under the chairmanship of David Figueredo will study the variance petition. Others appointed to the committee by President Bart Lyran include J. A. Beasley and E. S. Schoonover.

Four Seeking Two Council Seats in P.V.

Two incumbents and two challengers were qualified for the Palos Verdes Estates Council election at deadline time Thursday.

Incumbents H. F. B. Roessler, who has been serving as mayor, and Earle E. Parkhurst filed two weeks ago. Filing last week to oppose them were Ray Krogh, an electrical engineer, and Franklin A. Steinko, president of a Long Beach stenotype company and former staff member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

City Clerk William C. Platt and City Treasurer Robert W. Mooney filed for re-election unopposed.

Chapman in Kentucky

Pfc. William H. Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Chapman, 17002 Osage Ave., was recently assigned to the 11th Airborne Division, Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

He will soon be leaving for Augsburg, Germany, with the Division for a three year tour of duty overseas.

Pfc. Chapman is a Rifleman in Company I of the 188th Airborne Infantry Regiment. He was previously assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Only 2 Cases Reported by Health Dept.

Only two cases of reportable diseases were recorded for the Torrance area for the week ending Feb. 11 according to the County Health Department.

One person was stricken with meningitis and another with mumps. For the entire South Bay area only 25 cases of diseases were recorded for the same period.

Youth Temperance Council to Meet

There will be a meeting of the Youth Temperance Council on Tuesday evening, Feb. 21 at 7 o'clock. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruth White, 829 Payson St.

This group is directed by Mrs. Martha Bell, county Y. T. C. officer, and is open to the teen-age boys and girls of the Torrance area.

A new feature of the meetings is to be the organization of a chorus under the direction of Mrs. Ruth White, who also plays piano for the group. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Burglars Get Narcotics

Burglars seized $25 in narcotics Wednesday night when they bashed in the rear door to gain entrance to a medical-dental building in Lomita, sheriff's deputies reported.

The building, occupied by Dr. Saul Percival, 45, of Long Beach, and Dr. Milton F. Flagg, 34, of 2754 Lott View Dr., was entered when burglars used an axe to knock a wood panel out of the door, authorities said. All the offices and cabinets were ransacked, deputies said, but only the narcotics were taken.
